QUICK FACTS

WHY SINGLES CRUISE

There's a market of 110 million single adults in the U.S.; travelers with disposable income and flexible schedules who don't want to travel alone. With SinglesCruise, your clients enjoy an exciting, multi-destination vacation with like-minded peers.

This isn't just a cruise, it's a full-fledged social event for your clients! They'll feel included in an exclusive group, participating in special activities before, during and after the cruise with onboard hosts and veterans that amplify the experience and encourage future voyages.

BENEFITS FOR AGENTS

Take advantage of a new market opportunity with good yields on single supplement sales, protected commission and no rebating. Tap into new revenue by booking your solo travelers with SinglesCruise!

You will still get your full commission if your client re-books directly with SinglesCruise, whether or not they mention you, and we'll handle all the logistics to make sure they have a spectacular vacation experience. We keep you and your client informed with updates, payment reminders, check-in information and more. Plus, your client won't pay additional fees if we can't find them a roommate.

RESERVATION INFORMATION

Current pricing can be found on our website. Fares include all NCFs, government fees, taxes and prepaid gratuities, which are non-commissionable. Deposit and final payments are based on supplier's terms and conditions. Client will see two merchants on their credit card: SinglesCruise.com as well as the cruise line or Travel Leaders, depending on the booking. The invoice shows all details for cancellations, which must be received in writing. Additional restrictions apply. See our website for more information.
